

1. P trusse

The Petrus Valley, situated between the city centre and the Bourbon Plateau, is a very popular park and excursion destination for the inhabitants of the capital. It was built in 1867, when the fortress of Luxembourg was demolished, and the fortifications replaced by footpaths, meadows and gardens. Today there are, among other attractions, a mini golf field and a skateboard park. Two large bridges cross the valley, the Adolphe Bridge, built in 1905 and the "Passerelle" built from 1859 to 1861.

2. Al Avenue

At the end of the two "Al" and "Nei" Avenues is Luxembourg's main railway station. It was built in 1913 in neo-baroque style. For strategic reasons, the first railway station in Luxembourg was built of wood in the middle of the 19th century. Thus, it could be quickly demolished in the event of an invasion of the fortress. The two avenues that lead from the city, past the "Place de Paris" to the railway station, are ideal places for strolling and shopping.

3. F.D. Roosevelt Quai 1

The visit's starting point, where you can admire the Petrus Valley with its famous casemates and the "Notre-Dame" Cathedral with its crypt, is in front of the National Monument "Gille Fra" on the Constitutional Square. Not far away you will find the Casino Luxembourg which today, is a museum of contemporary art. Explore the "Place Guillaume II" and the City Hall, the pedestrian zone with its many shopping opportunities and the "Place d'Armes", as well as the old town with its museums, churches, Vauban fortifications and the Grand Duke's Palace.

4. Amalia

The monument of Princess Amalia is situated in the city park, near the Boulevard Royal. Amalia was the wife of Prince Henry of the Netherlands, governor of the Grand Duchy from 1849 to 1879. Prince Henry ruled according to strict parliamentary principles.

5. Fondation Pescatore Quai 1

Enjoy the magnificent view from the panorama elevator or from the viewing platform to the Pfaffenthal suburb and the Kirchberg Plateau. Walk past the Glacis, where Luxembourg's largest and most famous annual fair, the "Schueberfouer", takes place at the end of August! Nearby is the "Grand Théâtre de Luxembourg".

6. Roud Br ck-Pafendall Quai 1B

The station "Roud Br ck-Pafendall" is an important element for the tram line of Luxembourg. A cable car takes the train passengers from Pfaffenthal up to the station from where they can continue their journey by bus or tram. The European and banking district of Kirchberg also begins here. The elegant bridge, popularly known as the "Red Bridge", forms the link between the city and Kirchberg.

7. Mudam

Take a look at the Mudam, the Grand Duke Jean Museum of Modern Art, and explore the "Drai Eechelen" fortress museum, where you can discover Luxembourg's historical heritage! In contrast, the avant-garde architecture of the nearby "Philharmonie" is a highlight.

8. Luxexpo Parvis Sud

Welcome to one of the new quarters of the City of Luxembourg, where shops, banks, big law firms and companies have set up their branches, and where you will also find the largest cinema complex in the country, with its many bars and restaurants. The bus stop is located in front of the international exhibition centre called LUXEXPO - THE BOX.

9. BEI

Discover the European Investment Bank and the Court of Justice of the European Union with its three tall office towers. One of them, at 115 metres, is the tallest building in the country. Nearby, you can also admire the National Sports and Cultural Centre (d'Coque).

10. St ereplaz / Etoile Quai 4

Villa Vauban, the art museum of the City of Luxembourg, is not far from the "Stäreplaz". It is located in an enchanting city garden! There is also an attraction nearby, especially for children: a beautiful playground in the shape of a huge pirate ship!

Main departure point: Boulevard de la P trusse

